

MECHANICAL FABRICATION CENTER

Grinders

The Southwest Research Institute® (SwRI®) Mechanical Fabrication Center (MFC) is equipped to perform a wide variety of grinding operations. Pictured are some examples of grinding equipment available for these purposes. For additional information about the MFC, contact Mark Waldron at mwaldron@swri.org.

D1M016591_0797

D1M016591_0848

Brown & Sharpe® Surface. The Brown & Sharpe 1024 Micromaster Surface Grinding Machine employs a surface magnet to hold materials firmly in place while the grinding wheel is applied.

D016591_0819

Cincinnati. Pictured above is the Cincinnati 10-inch Universal Internal/External Grinding Machine used by the MFC. The inset photo shows parts that were machined to precise specifications using the Cincinnati grinder.